

Dr David Bull MBBS BSc(i)

David is an experienced, intelligent award-winning presenter who has hosted live and pre-recorded shows on British network television for over fifteen years for the BBC, ITV, Channel 4, Five, Living TV and Sky TV. He made his US debut in 2009 and is now working in both the UK and the US.

Biography

2010 – current	Web MD Host for high-profile US portal.	USA
2009 – current	The Rachael Ray Show Health/Lifestyle Expert for this huge daytime show in the US attracting 15million viewers. Presents and writes material for US audience. Filmed in New York.	USA
2009 – current	Inside Out Presenter / Reporter for prime-time current affairs show.	BBC1
2003 – current	The Wright Stuff Regular panelist on popular live 90-minute daytime current affairs and gossip show. Topical, lively and funny. Highest rated original show on channel. David has been on the show for over 8 years!	Five
2008 – current	BBC Five Live Radio Co-presenter of late night chat show.	BBC
2008 – current	The Alan Titchmarsh Show Regular presenter for popular daytime show covering all medical and health-related issues.	ITV
2008 – 2009	Thomas Cook TV Studio anchor of travel channel for major travel chain.	Sky
2003 – current	Breathing Life Awards Writer and presenter of live 90-minute celebrity award show celebrating the achievements of people living with Cystic Fibrosis, a life-threatening disease.	Sky
2003 – 2007	Richard and Judy Reporter and presenter for this daily high-profile flagship show, covering all aspects of health and lifestyle.	C4
2002 – 2006	Most Haunted LIVE! Anchor of groundbreaking interactive ghost hunt. Three and a half hours in duration and live. Living TV's highest rated show. Now sold worldwide.	Living
2007- 2008	Teletext Holidays Launch presenter of new channel charged with making foreign travel more accessible. Reported from Cuba, the US, Europe and around the world as well as being the studio anchor of the channel.	Sky

December 2005	Hospital Live	Living
	Anchor of both three-hour and single hour live shows. Two a day every day based at Rotherham General Hospital following the stories of the staff and patients at this busy hospital.
2004	National ESP Challenge Live!	Living
	Anchor of one-off three hour show determining whether Extra Sensory Perception is real or a figment of the imagination.
2002 – 2004	Tomorrow's World	BBC1
	Main presenter of this established prime-time show. Making science and technology understandable to a wide audience and looking at what the future will bring.
2001 – 2002	Watchdog Healthcheck	BBC1
	Main presenter of BBC1's flagship health programme. Weekly, live, half hour themed show. Includes reporting on topical issues and interviewing guests from Government and industry.
1999 – 2002	Watchdog	BBC1
	Presenter/Reporter for this live flagship prime-time consumer programme.
1999 – 2000	Weekend Watchdog	BBC1
	Reporter. Covering consumer's complaints about the holiday and leisure industry.
1999	Let's Get Healthy	ITV
	Presenter of this half hour health magazine show. Including studio interviews and filmed reports. 25 shows made.
1998	Sort It!	BBC2
	Presenter of cutting edge, ground breaking problem page programme for teenagers – the first of its type for BBC Television including live debates.
1996 – 1999	Newsround	BBC1
	Presenter and producer of reports on medical issues affecting children. Became the first person to broadcast medical issues to children on UK television. Reports also used by BBC News.
1999	Newsround 24	BBC
	Main Presenter of this 30-minute review of the week's news for children.
1999	K Club	BBC4
	Main presenter of a one-hour live interactive magazine programme for kids. This programme launched the new channel.
1999	Bitesize Debate Specials	BBC4
	Presenter of one hour debates for kids on the BBC's newest channel.
1999 – 2000	This Morning	ITV1
	Medical Expert and Reporter for high profile magazine show.

1998 – 2000	Daily Live	BBC1
	Medical Expert and Reporter for this live morning magazine programme.
June 1997 – 2000	Fully Booked	BBC2
	Writer and presenter of a series of films for this children's magazine programme as well as studio guest spots.
1997 – 1998	The Really Useful Show	BBC1
	Medical Expert and Reporter for this magazine programme. Studio appearances, filmed reports and live Outside Broadcasts from around the country.
1997 – 2001	Summer Holiday	BBC1
	Presenter of reports from holiday destinations around the world including Majorca and Ibiza
1996 – 1997	The Weather Show	BBC1
	Presenter for last two series. Various reports from around the country about the weather and its impact on the globe.
1997	Baby Baby	C4
	Medical Expert on daytime show.
1996 – 1997	Saturday Aardvark	BBC1
	2nd series of this popular show. Madcap medicine and health issues with live viewers' calls.
1997 – 1998	Newsround Extra	BBC1
	Presenter and Reporter of 15-minute documentaries dedicated to the subjects such as childhood bullying, obesity and HIV.
1997	Why Me?	Living
	Twice weekly, half hour magazine programme. Successor of 'Call the Doctor'. Completed third series (sixty programmes). Recorded as live.
1996 – 1997	Call the Doctor	Living
	A twice-weekly magazine programme recorded as live. Presentation of current medical issues in magazine form, followed by viewers' letters and calls.
1996 – 1997	Tell Me About It !	C4
	Sole presenter of this magazine style programme for teenagers featuring issues such as fashion, divorce and anorexia. Recorded as live with studio guests.
1995	The Sky Travel Guide	Sky
	Presenter on the holiday health feature for this magazine style programme.

Awards

1. Royal Television Society Award (RTS)
Best Children's factual programme Newsround Extra – Bullying – 1997
2. Independent Radio Broadcasting Award For "2 Smart for Drugs Roadshow"
Presenter of an anti-drugs roadshow in British schools in conjunction with Essex police and Essex FM.
3. Outstanding Contribution Award.
Cystic Fibrosis Trust Award 2001 for raising the profile of the UK's most common life-threatening genetically inherited disease.

Author

1. 'Cool, and Celebrate' Element Books, distributed by Penguin. Now in worldwide distribution
2. Author of 'What Every Girl Should Know' Element Books, distributed by Penguin.

Corporates

2011	Fresenius	Host of Global Renal Medicine Conferences and TV
2010-2011	LACA	Host of conference for school caterers
2010	Cisco	Host of 2010 Conference – San Francisco
2010	GSK	Host of 2010 Conference – Hamburg.
2001-current	BT	BT Group Corporate Presenter
2003-2008	HP	Host of IPG Global Conference
2007- 2008	Renault	Host of countrywide roadshows
2003-2005	Nicorette	Host of Anti-smoking roadshows around the country.
2002-2004	BBC Worldwide	Host of Tomorrow's World Live Events in Birmingham, Cardiff, London and Glasgow.
1996-2000	BBC Worldwide	CBBC Big Bash Main Presenter for live events on stage at this enormous children's party at the NEC in Birmingham.